The Class of 1957 is proud to dedicate its annual to you, Miss Nellie Harris, for your unselfish service, kindness, and thoughtfulness in doing all those "little extras" for the whole school. We especially appreciate your being chaperone and scorekeeper for our basketball games. Your smile and willingness to help has been an asset in the enrichment of our days at school.

To The Class of 1957

I dare say half the working people in our country spend much of their time looking for a completely pleasant and easy job. As young people entering life you might just as well face the fact that there is no such thing. Do the job at hand, pleasant or unpleasant, with complete thoroughness.

The pleasant part of life is in being able to look back at a job well done. Thoreau says, "Drive a nail home and clinch it so faithfully that you will wake up in the night and think of your work with satisfaction."

May you live happily ever after is the wish of that mean 'ol man

Senior Class Prophecy

It's 1967, the rock and roll craze has gotten out of hand. The latest thing for the crazy kids is a rock 'n roll wedding. Such was the case that awakened me on the 31st of June, 1967. It was a real George dim for such a gig, in other words, a gasser.

Being a quiet church mouse this sort of hassle disturbed me to no end. Louise French was becoming the bride of Kenny Cowman. The most Reverend, Rev Van Hasten officiated at the triple ring flashlight ceremony.

The bride was a real cate kitten in her pink and black plaid skirt which fell in a sweep of heels, her skirt and black turtle neck sweater were designed by Mi Mi (Marcene) Van Wyk, the foremost French fashion designer and manufacturer of the happy rock. On the bride's knees peeked out from above her pink and black argyle Bermuda socks. Bob shoes and beanie completed her outfit. Pink violets and pink speckle testifiers encircled her foot long pony tail. The groomsmen were attired in the "Elvis Look."

Joyce Laurens, the former Joyce Rasmussen, was matron of honor. Janice Harrison was flower girl, and Larry Stravers was ring bearer.

Dave (Morty Man) Mousaw with his Rock 'n Roll Comets played appropriate jazz preceding the ceremony. The wedding processional was Rudy's Rock.

Maxine Van Wyk, the famous Metropolitan Opera star, sang "Crazy 'Bout You Baby" and "You Don't Know Me."

The reception was held immediately following the wedding party. Dorothy Smits was hostess and Bill Schosser mixed and sampled all drinks and served as toastmaster. Entertainment was provided by the waitresses, Linda Jetterson, Irene Lorenson, Vera Pearson, Carolyn Rasmussen, and Loretta Cline--and dancers Janet Walsworth, Jerald Stearns, winners of the 1967 dance contest.

The bride and groom spent their honeymoon at Lake Tichemunga where they had met and fallen in-----love, that is.

The bride and groom were both graduates of Prairie City High, Class of '67. The groom recently completed extensive post-graduate work at the University of Monroe and is now employed by the Prairie City Sewage Department.

The bride and groom were hosts at a brilliant affair partied at Plumpy's Steak House, owned and operated by Dave Van Mousaw. That evening to the party were entertained by the brothers of Mi Mi Van Wyk's cat. It was a real tall tale except for a minor incident when Sada (Loretta Cline), the waitress, slipped up and stepped the sugar on over the dance floor. Clean Sweep Stevers, the janitor, had to be called from his bromeliad set to mop up the mess.

Out of town guests at the festivities included such celebrities as Lynn Campbell, Olympic miler, Gene Kotler, pro football player, and Arlys Tatham, sword swallower just returned from special training in Burma. They were transported from the airport in Island Bus' #22 Sasser.

Pictures of the competition were taken by the famous photographer Rasmussen Gallery.

I hereby declare on this 31st day of June, 1967 that the above is a complete and accurate account of a rock 'n roll wedding.

Signed,
Mortimer Mouse

Every trouble that ever happened to a baby sitter happens to Carrie tonight! She thought she was all through with baby-sitting and that she has a wonderful date with Bob all set. She's spent her "sitting-savings" on a beautiful new outfit. What a surprise for Bob! Poor Bob. He can hardly force out the words to tell her that he's under strict parental orders to break this date! His folks have cracked down because he gets in so late from his dates with Carrie. They don't realize that Bob has just been staying up to see her home safely from her sitting jobs. Now they've even forced Bob to make another date with Eunice! Then there's a sudden emergency and now their baby-sitter can't come. The folks are desperate, for they must leave. Carrie steps forward. Despite her feelings she offers to take the job. The parents reluctantly accept. Bob is dumfounded, but Carrie quickly points out that this is her only chance to make a good impression on his folks. She'll show them what a nice responsible girl she is. She didn't reckon with the little devil she's being left to watch! First, Junior gets Carrie suspected of twisting his arm--and then throws the blame on her for breaking a window with a slingshot! Bob's parents are even more angry with her, and she's so flustered that she uses Father's new white silk muffler as the little girl's diaper! The parents are in a rage, and it doesn't seem possible that more could go wrong. But then Junior swallows what might either have been a mushroom, or a toadstool! Carrie acts quickly, just in case--she forces every antidote in the medical book down the violently protesting Junior's throat! When the others burst in on this scene of the determined Carrie and shouting Junior, they've convinced Carrie is trying to murder the little darling! Poor Carrie is heartbroken, but then, in fast-paced comedy style, the play builds rapidly to a surprise and delightful ending with Carrie "on top of the world."
